

Anglican Relief and Development Fund Canada (ARDFC)

Restoring health, hope and dignity in JESUS' name

The Anglican Relief and Development Fund Canada (ARDFC) is a registered Canadian charity that undertakes carefully selected and monitored aid projects in partnership with dioceses in developing nations.

ARDFC works closely with the Anglican Relief and Development Fund (ARDF) in the US and is affiliated with the Anglican Network in Canada (ANiC) and the Anglican Church in North America (ACNA).

Why support ARDFC

When you support ARDFC projects, you can be confident that your gift will make a real and lasting difference in the lives of people in developing countries. You also have the assurance that ARDFC projects have been thoroughly researched and are carefully monitored to ensure objectives are being met. And you will know that your gift will help a diocese in the Global South meet often desperate needs in its communities. When ARDFC takes on projects, it establishes direct partnerships with the Global South dioceses that will implement each of the life-changing missions.

As a bonus, since ARDFC is a registered Canadian Charity, it can issue receipts for Canadian income tax purposes.

ARDFC projects

ARDFC projects are selected after consultation with such esteemed international Anglican advisors as Baroness Caroline Cox, Archbishop Gregory Venables, Archbishop Mouneer Anis, Archbishop John Chew and Archbishop Justice Akrofi.

In order to be selected, projects must be:

- local ventures in the Global South with high impact results that provide permanent life changes
- well researched and provide measureable goals and results
- administered through the local Global South Anglican Diocese

You can check out the current ARDFC project on our website: www.ardfc.ca.
